Shaking Their Heads.

American financiers, enthusiastic in the first blush, are now shaking their heads with concern. A calmer survey of the situation has left the impression that the difficulty of marketing supplies, coupled with the uncertainty of what may constitute contraband of war, will probably preclude the reaping by this nation of gigantic profits during the state of war. All realize that strife of the proportions now contemplated hese markets would be bankrupt.

The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed conditions of the money or stock mar-kets. First deed of trust notes (first mort-gages), well secured on real estate in the District of Columbia, constitute "gilt-edge" investments. They do not depend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or cor-porations for their stability, and are exempt from taxtion as personal property. We can supply such investments in amounts from $500 upward. Send for booklet, "Concerning Loans and investments."
